To

The General Secretary to the Government of Mysore—

Sir,

I have the honor to report that the sanctioned menial

4 servants viz: 1 peon on Rupees

each per month, the total cost being Rupees 12. The members of that Board now propose to reduce the number of servants to 3 viz: 1 peon on Rupees 2 and 2 Sweepers on Rupees 5 each, on the ground that it is impossible to secure the services of Sweepers

for

for the small pay of Rupees 3. I, therefore, beg that the sanction of Government may be accorded to the proposed change which involves no extra cost.

R Lr No 127

His letter dated 5 September 1895 —
No 253 proposing the revision in the number and pay of the sweepers of the Holavanahalli Municipality without involving extra cost.

If the services of a sweeper cannot be secured for less than 5 Rs, it is doubtful whether a peon, who is to supervise the work of sweepers, could be secured for a still lower salary, viz Rs 2. The Deputy Commissioner is therefore requested to state to whom the monthly payment of Rs 2 is proposed to be made for supervising the work of sweeper.
